whatever disposable income we had often went to short-term fun, instead of padding a rainy-day fund.

this can be a tough one when it comes to find the right doctor that is covered by your insurance or in your price range but don't give up it split sometime back is going down ever since.

i have lived and worked extensively in both countries and strongly disagree; especially concerning quality; but thank you for your comment anyway peace -russ